Dan,

Sorry. Your nomination was definitely received and has been added to Evan's existing file. Our election this year involved a special ballot. Two trustees and long time swim coach and admissions director Bruce Gardiner were elected. We will overhaul our nomination committee this summer so a fresh look will be taken at the entire candidate pool.

Hope all is well with you,

Best regards,
Joe Sterrett

Subject: LU Athletics Hall of Fame Nomination - Evan Bruno

Hi Joe -

Hope all is well with you and your family. I am nominating Evan Bruno for the LU Athletics Hall of Fame. He's one of the best soccer players and all-around athletes I've ever crossed paths with and I think his career accomplishments merit induction.

Steve Lomangino said to send the nomination form directly to you. Let me know if there is any other information you need from me.

Thanks,
Dan Perciballi '03

14. Additional Information:

I had the opportunity to play alongside Evan for his entire 4 years at Lehigh University and I can honestly and sincerely say that he would be a fantastic representative of Lehigh Men's Soccer in the Lehigh Athletics Hall of Fame. The statistics and accolades I've cited above are remarkable and I believe evidence enough to receive this honor.

But perhaps more importantly Evan was pivotal in elevating Lehigh Soccer to national prominence and notoriety which continues to evolve today. He was instrumental in the ability of Lehigh Soccer to attract more highly touted recruits and schedule more games against nationally recognized opponents. Additionally, during his career, Lehigh Soccer began to receive more regular coverage and respect from college soccer media outlets.

The transformation of the Lehigh Soccer Program during Evan's career is best summarized, not by his individual accomplishments, but by the accomplishments of the program during those four remarkable years. Lehigh had not regularly defeated nationally ranked programs until Evan became the face of Lehigh Men's Soccer. In his freshman year – Lehigh Soccer did not qualify for the Patriot League Tournament, but then advanced to 2 Patriot League Championship games in the next 3 years, which included Lehigh's first (and only) Patriot League Championship and 2 NCAA tournament appearances. The 2002 NCAA tournament appearance was the first time a Patriot League school had received a men's soccer at-large bid. I would not be surprised if Evan finished his career having started in more Lehigh Soccer victories than any player in Lehigh history. He achieved these individual and team successes while regularly being the focal point of any game plan by opposing teams and his athleticism was an admitted nightmare for opposing coaches. And since this nomination is for an "Athletics" Hall of Fame – I would add that I have met only a handful of individuals in my lifetime who are as athletic in the general sense of the word; who could have excelled in any number of other sports had the passion, desire and resources been as focused as it had been in soccer.

Evan was also voted by his teammates to serve as team captain his senior year and this was a clear testament to the incredible esteem to which he was held amongst the team. No player was more respected for his capacity to play through injuries while maintaining the highest level of energy and quality in practice and games. He instilled an attitude of camaraderie and teamwork at all times which made my time as a Lehigh soccer player one of the most memorable experiences of my life.

I hope the references I've provided below are fully considered during the research of Evan's eligibility and merit for induction into the Lehigh Athletics Hall of Fame because there are no specific accolades or awards that can appropriately portray Evan's tremendous character and integrity. In your research, I am confident that you will find no discrepancies from anyone who knew Evan then or knows Evan now regarding his moral standing or reputation. He is a tremendous person and exemplifies what it meant to be a Lehigh Student-Athlete and what it means to be a Lehigh Alumnus. I am proud to say that I knew Evan during his four years at Lehigh and he had a significant influence in my life that I am still grateful for today.

I believe everything I have presented here should provide a very compelling case for Evan Bruno to be inducted into the prestigious Lehigh Athletics Hall of Fame.

Player Profiles

JOHN WALMSLEY
Jr., Midfielder
5-7", 150 lbs.
Undecided
Denver, PA
Cocalico H.S.

Yet to realize potential, but has shown glimpses...will make contributions as a role player...after seeing no action as a freshman played in ten games as a sophomore, starting two...has continued to develop as a midfielder and offers very important depth to the team...member of COACH program.

Why Lehigh?: "I chose Lehigh mainly for academics, but when I was given the chance to play soccer, that confirmed the decision for me. Whether I'm with the soccer team or the fraternity, there is never a dull moment."

Walmsley on Koski: "Coach Koski brings a very competitive nature to the team, and you can see it in all the guys on the game field and in practice."

RYAN GRZESZCZAK
So., Goalkeeper
5-11", 165 lbs.
Business
Medford, NJ
Shawnee H.S.

Has the potential to be a dominating factor in the Patriot League...named Patriot League Rookie of the Year as a freshman... recorded shut-outs against regional powers Richmond, Princeton, Hartwick, Colgate and Army ...led Patriot League with a 1.00 goals against average...named Patriot League Defensive Player of the Week (10/11).

Why Lehigh?: "I attended Lehigh because of the high academic standards and the opportunity to play Division I soccer. My experience at Lehigh has been an extremely positive one."

Grzeszczak on Koski: "Coach Koski is a great coach to play for. He knows the game very well, and he is really helpful with off-the-field problems."

MATT WEICK
So., Defender/Midfielder
5-8", 150 lbs.
Business
Voorhees, NJ
Camden Catholic H.S.

Saw limited action as a freshman...learned the Lehigh system and made progress through his freshman season ... member of COACH program which features Lehigh student-athletes working with Lehigh Valley youth.

Why Lehigh?: "I chose to attend Lehigh to receive a high level education and compete in Division I soccer."

Weick on Koski: "Playing for Coach Koski has been a great experience for me. At every game and practice, Coach Koski brings the same passion and desire and expects his players to do the same."

EVAN BRUNO
So., Forward
5-9", 150 lbs.
Business/Economics
Middletown, NJ
Middletown H.S.

Very good freshman season and will be relied on heavily to carry the team offensively this season...tied with classmate Dan Perciballi for team lead in scoring with 15 points and six goals...scored game-winning goal in 2-1 victory over Penn ...scored game-winning goal in 1-0 win over Hartwick ...scored gamewinner in 1-0 win over Princeton ...member of COACH program.

Why Lehigh?: "I chose Lehigh because I knew it would give me the best of two worlds. I am receiving an excellent education and playing for an excellent soccer program."

Bruno on Koski: "The reason it is so great to play for Coach Koski is because he cares so much for his players."
