

Andy Coen

Andy Coen coached at Lehigh University for thirteen consecutive seasons (2006-2018).

Before Lehigh, Coen coached at schools such as Widener, James Madison, Minnesota, and Penn.

During his time at Lehigh Coen accumulated a record of 85-64-0, tying him with Bill Leckonby for most wins at Lehigh.

Coen also held a record of 53-23 in conference play.

In 2010 and 2016, Coen was awarded Patriot League Coach of the Year.

His teams were crowned Patriot League Champions in 2006 (Co-Champions), 2010, 2011, 2016, and 2017.

With 4 NCAA D1-AA Playoff appearances, Coen holds an overall postseason record of 2-4.

In 2010 and 2011, his teams reached the quarterfinals.

Coen retired from his illustrious career in 2018.

2 Academic All Americans

1 NFL Draft - Will Rackley (2011)

9 AP All Americans

19 Stats All-Americans