This evening we are pleased to honor an individual whose impact and contributions to the Lehigh Valley are numerous.

Lee A. Butz, who is a native of Allentown, is a graduate of Allentown High School and Lehigh University with a degree in civil engineering.

As president of Alvin H. Butz, Inc., his presence is well known throughout the Valley represented by the many structures and projects his firm has completed.

But this only tells a part of his story, because Lee has given countless hours of himself to building in the Lehigh Valley an environment that nurtures both the business and social needs of our region.

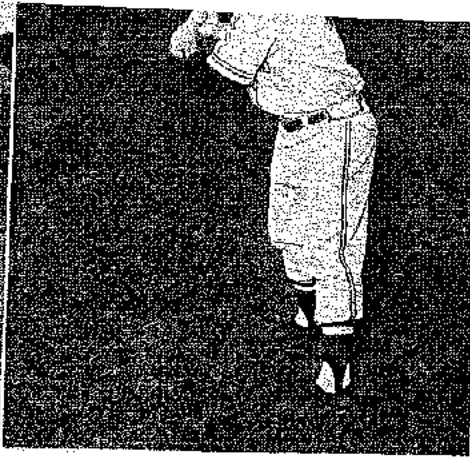

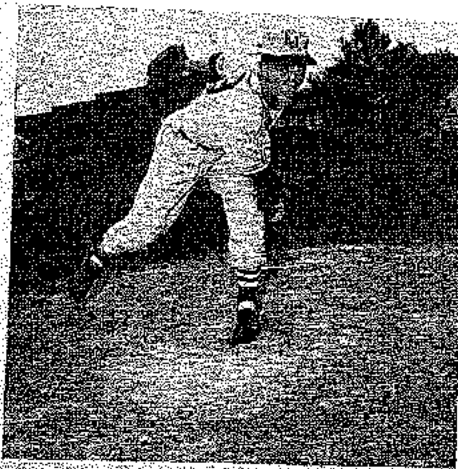

The list of organizations that Lee has given his time to, read as the who's who of educational, community and social services in the Lehigh Valley. These have included Cedar Crest College, Lehigh and Northampton Community Colleges, Moravian and Allentown Colleges, Valley Youth House, Easter Seals, Girl's Club, Allentown Rotary Club, Big Brothers, Exchange Club and Lehigh County Chamber of Commerce.

At present, his civic involvement includes Lehigh University, Good Shepherd Home, Allentown-Lehigh County Chamber of Commerce, Bethlehem Area Chamber of Commerce, Lehigh Valley Partnership, Lutheran Theological Seminary, Allentown Symphony Association and Minsi Trails Council, to name a few.

Lee is the recipient of Alumni Achievement awards from both Lehigh and Muhlenberg colleges, Sertoma American Heritage Award, SME Distinguished Citizen Award, March of Dimes, and Allentown Lehigh County Chamber of Commerce.

He and his wife, Dolly, are the parents of three children, Greg, Shari, and Eric.

It is with great pride that we recognize Lee A. Butz as the 1994 Minsi Trails Council, Boy Scouts of America, Lehigh Leadership Dinner Distinguished Citizen Award recipient.

Baseball Coach Tony Packer watches the progress of his Brown and White diamonders.

Lehigh scored their second straight upset of the season as they completely outplayed the highly-rated Nittany Lions from Penn State, 6-1. Frank Yurek returned to his old form and got credit for the win. This time Frank racked up seven strikeouts in the fray. Harry Stotz banged out a home-run to help knock the Lions starting pitcher Dave Lucas from the box.

Dick Stefanik started his first game of the year and went the route to beat the Haverford nine, 7-2. Stefanik struck out nine men and allowed only four hits in his impressive debut. Stotz continued his power hitting, blasting out two more homeruns in the Haverford tilt.

Six runs in the sixth inning gave the Brown and White their third straight win, and their sixth of the season, as the Lehigh diamonders beat Gettysburg, 9-4. Third sacker Bruce Thompson and catcher Bob Gilmore each gathered three hits as the Engineers gathered a total of thirteen safeties. Lee Butz went the route to gain his second win of the season.

Lehigh won their fourth straight with a 3-1 victory over Wagner. Butz picked up his third win in a row as he scattered only five hits for the opposition. He also posted eight strikeouts in his winning performance, which was LU's seventh win in eleven starts.

Lehigh closed out the season splitting their remaining four games. Lafayette's ace, Ron Owen, tamed the Engineers to break their four-game winning streak with a 5-0 shutout.

Rutgers made it two shutouts in a row with a tight 1-0 victory over Lehigh. This was the second win of the season for the Scarlet over the Engineers. Lehigh got back on the victory trail with a 3-0 win over Muhlenberg in Allentown, in a hotly disputed game.

Butz and Yurek were the outstanding pitchers of the year while Stotz provided most of the power in the clutch.

Without the services of Captain Ron Jirsa, Lehigh's 1954 Baseball Team turned in a commendable record of nine wins against six losses, including two successive upsets over Muhlenberg and Penn State.

The Engineers opened the season with a sparkling 11-2 win over Swarthmore to make it three straight over the Garnet. Frank Yurek got credit for the win, twirling a no-hitter going into the ninth, when a scratch single spoiled it. Yurek picked up thirteen strikeouts in the opener.

Lehigh made it two in a row, taking the Temple Owls in ten innings, 4-3. Pete Danforth took over for starter Yurek in the tenth and got credit for the win.

The Brown and White travelled to Philadelphia only to suffer their first defeat at the hands of Penn, 9-6, and then bowed to Princeton, 7-3. Errors played a big part in both games, as Princeton picked up two unearned runs.

Franklin and Marshall handed the Engineers their third straight defeat, 5-4, on a tenth-inning squeeze play. Lehigh managed to tie the game in the seventh and again in the ninth, but the Diplomats pulled it out of the fire.

Yurek, who rang up ten strikeouts in the Franklin and Marshall contest, absorbed his second undeserved defeat, this time at the hands of a Rutgers' nine. The Scarlet won hands down, 6-2.

The Engineers resumed their winning ways with a surprise upset of the Muhlenberg Mules, 3-2. Lee Butz pitched his first game and gave only five hits and drove in the winning run in the ninth.

Lee A. Butz favors the team concept, whether in baseball, business or life.

Every team needs a strong captain, and Butz has been rock-solid in championing his business for 25 years.

And whether serving as chief executive officer of Alvin H. Butz Inc., or chairing a fund-raising campaign, Butz dives into both with the hustle of the Phillies' Scott Rolen.

Building buildings or building donor lists — Butz, who turns 65 in October, sees a strong, as concrete connection between doing business in a community and doing good in a community.

His resume includes several pages of civic activities, ranging from the United Way of the Greater Lehigh Valley (he chaired the 1997 fund-raising campaign) to helping a Boys and Girls Club by partaking in a "Kiss the Pig" contest in 1994.

"I think it's the right thing to do," Butz says matter-of-factly during an interview at the corporate headquarters in South Whitehall Township. "The community has been so good to us.

"They have put their faith and confidence in us to build the buildings for them, and the least we can do is

He also played baseball in high school and college, and joined an Army squad during a tour of service stationed in Fort Knox, Ky.

Butz had worked at Alvin H. Butz Inc., his father's business, since his high school days. Lee Butz is a fourth-generation builder. His great-grandfather, Solomon Butz Sr., built covered bridges.

When his father died in 1973, Lee Butz became president of the company. The elder Butz instilled a business philosophy Lee Butz employs today: "I remember him saying to me, 'No matter what it costs, always do whatever it takes to make the job right. In the long run, it'll pay off.'

"It's amazing... going the extra mile can be the best investment you can ever make."

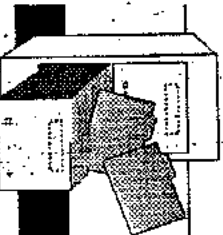

Butz also pioneered locally a new concept — construction management. He equates it to being part of a team that includes the property owner and architect.

The first project under the concept was at Allentown's Sacred Heart Hospital. It saved the hospital $400,000 and was completed four months ahead of schedule, according to Butz. From that job, more clients called.

The Butz company has built or rebuilt many recognizable buildings in the region, including the Two Rivers Landing visitors center in Easton and Koh-I-Noor Rapi-

DU's and PiKA's Win In League D Softball

INTERFRATERNITY SOFTBALL is the latest activity on South Mountain as 16 teams met in games since the vacation in which Delta Upsilon defeated Pi Lambda Phi, and Pi Kappa Alpha won from Theta Kappa Phi.

Delta Upsilon stayed in contention for first place in league D by edging out Pi Lambda Phi by the score of 5-3. The game was a close one but the DU's took advantage of their opponent's errors to win the game by a two run margin. Paul Houriet did the pitching for Delta Upsilon while Bud Rubell was on the mound for Pi Lambda Phi.

PI KAPPA ALPHA, now tied for first place with Delta Upsilon in league D, easily defeated Theta Kappa Phi, 19-1. The Theta Kappa's had pitching troubles as Bob Flynn, Mike Crehel, and Bill Gendzlinger were all used for the mound duties. Ed Prebor was very effective in pitching for Pi Kappa Alpha.

Early 9 Goal Outburst Downs Stickmen, 16-0

by Don Heath

THE FORTUNES of the Lehigh lacrosse team were even darker than the weather Saturday afternoon at New Brunswick, N.J., as the Brown and White went down before a strong Rutgers ten, 16-0, in a sea of mud and water.

Rutgers sewed up the game in the first quarter as they poured in nine goals, and added two more in the second quarter for an 11-0 lead. Stevens, MacVaigh, and Gabriel of the Scarlet provided the scoring punch as they counted nine of the Scarlet's 11 tallies in this first half.

Caraway Picks Hurlers For Next Eight Tough Oponents

by John Crane

COACH EB CARAWAY sat back and did a little surveying into the future yesterday. Saturday's rain-out game with Rutgers had altered his pitching plans and he had to figure out a new rotation of his hurlers as his team faced eight tough opponents in these next two weeks.

"I guess I'll throw Ron Jirsa tomorrow (this afternoon) against Stevens," he summarized. "Then he will be ready to come back at Army on Monday. I'll probably use Ed Leichter down at P&M Wednesday and Frank Yurek against Delaware Friday."

LEE BUTZ, a native of Allentown, will make his first start of the season Saturday against Muhlenberg, and then Coach Caraway can come back with his big three in the four games the following week - Jirsa against Army, Leichter against Gettysburg on Wednesday, Yurek at Navy on Thursday, and Jirsa again at Lafayette on Saturday.

Thus Coach Caraway has his mound staff set for the tough schedule ahead with Jirsa and Yurek pitching key games. Jirsa has won two of the team's three victories this season with Yurek having taken the other on a 20-strikeout performance against Swarthmore.

CARAWAY looks for a return in form of Leichter. The right-hander dropped two tough decisions to Richmond and Wagner.

score to 12-0. Conrad then made the first of his two long runs in the closing minutes of the first half as he circled his right end, and behind excellent downfield blocking, ran unopposed for the score.

IN the second half, Richards SA continued to move at will and scored two more touchdowns behind Conrad's passing and Brennan's runback on an interception.

Richards SA thus completed their second straight season of being unscared upon as only one touchdown has been scored against them in three years.

"With these fellows as starters and Bill Jensen and Bob Meyers in the bull pen, we should be pretty well set," said the Lehigh coach.

Gabriel of the Scarlet provided the scoring punch as they counted nine of the Scarlet's 11 tallies in this first half.

THE SECOND HALF saw the Rutgers team score three times in the third quarter and twice in the final stanza as Cullilo, Cio, Tilton, and Ambrose completed the scoring for the Scarlet in Lehigh's worst drubbing thus far this season.

Players of both teams were constantly hampered by the rain that fell throughout the contest. Lehigh's main weakness was in their defense that just couldn't seem to gain control of the ball, and subsequently was ever porous to the over-present Scarlet attackmen, especially Stevens and MacVaigh who scored four times apiece.

BESIDES this inability to gain control of the ball, the team's lack of scoring punch was responsible for Lehigh's first shutout of the season.

The team plays its next game tomorrow afternoon at Taylor Stadium against a strong Washington team, ranked among the top ten teams in the nation.

Bart Interprets Rules On Bareball Shoes, Bunting

WITH DOUBTS, questions, and general cases of confusion being brought before Prof. Fay Bartlett, director of intramural sports at Lehigh, as to the interpretation of the softball rules, Bart provided the following notes on questionable rules and practices.

First of all, all questions as to policy toward eligibility of players are covered in the statement governing organized competition, published by the intramural department and distributed to all participating groups.

ACCORDING to Prof. Bartlett, Lehigh's playing rules follow closely the rules published by the International Joint Rules Committee on Softball, which can be obtained at most sporting goods stores. Some changes however, have been made.

A point of great discussion has been the legality of bareball shoes. Prof. Bartlett advises that they are allowed, although most groups avoid their use to prevent injury to both base-runner and baseman.

BUNTING, another strategy which has been shied away from by teams, is also legal. Possibly its unpopularity is due to the fact that many teams thought it illegal.

SPORTS ANGLES

by Jerry Hanks

LU's Teams Are Slipping . . .

WHERE ARE WE GOING? . . . After climbing to undreamed of and never before attained heights last year, Lehigh's athletic teams are well on the road back down this year. No matter how you compare the overall won and lost records, either from the standpoint of scholastic or calendar years, the teams aren't what they were a year ago.

FROM .679 to .545 . . . Comparing the records from September through June of 1950-51 and 1951-52, is difficult because a little less than half the season still remains for five spring varsity sports. But here's the way things stand at present. In 1950-51 the complete overall record shows 95 wins, 45 losses for a .679 average. So far this year teams being checked.

From the way the teams have been going so far, the baseball squad ought to be good for at least six more wins this year. Give the golf team victories in its last four matches for an undoubted year. The trackmen ought to be able to win their last two meets, the tennis team at least three more and the lacrosse team give Lehigh a record of something like 24 wins, 79 defeats, two ties for .345. On the calendar year basis, there are too many ifs, including the success of the fall teams, to reckon with at present, but the outlook isn't bright.

A .545 Percentage at Best . . .

WHY THE SLUMP? . . . The best reason for the decline is simply the law of averages or the normal rise and fall of athletic success. What's more there's a gradual leveling-off program under foot in the athletic department, which admits it's pretty well pleased with stands right now. It all brings back to mind what president Whitehead said in his annual report. It was gratifying to see the success of Lehigh athletic teams in 1950-51 he said. "But," he added, "being sincere in our efforts to give intercollegiate competition only its proportional place in the development of the well-rounded student, we must also be satisfied with well-played competition in sports when our percentage of victory is nearer the 50 per cent mark."

Who's The Winner? . . .

TAKE YOUR CHOICE . . . Who was the winning pitcher in Lehigh's 7-4 victory over Delaware at Steel Field? You can take your pick of Frank Yurek, Bob Hodder, or Ron Jirsa. Yurek started the game, went four full innings and was relieved by Hodder in the fifth with the bases loaded, came out, Hodder got out of that jam but in the seventh got into a nest of trouble himself and with one down and two aboard gave way to Jirsa. The big right-hander retired the side and went on to complete the game. Yurek left the game with a 7-3 lead under his belt which apparently made him the winning pitcher. But according to official rules, the starting pitcher has to go five innings to get credit for a win. Jirsa did the stronger relief hurling the scores full, and got the win but the battle still raged when Lehigh met Muhlenberg on the same field the next day -- and with the same umpires.

POETIC JUSTICE . . . As if in poetic revenge for such a disputed victory, the fates got back at Jirsa on Monday. For nine innings he pitched perhaps his finest game of the season. He gave up two hits, fanned 14, walked only five. But when it was all over he had a 3-1 loss.

Army Stops Jirsa, 2-1; Nine Tops G'Burg, 9-5

Cadets Win on Squeeze Play

A SUCCESSFUL squeeze hunt by Vinca Bailey in the ninth inning won Jirsa's fine two-hit pitching performance Monday as Army snapped Lehigh's five-game winning streak, 2-1, at West Point.

With pinch-runner Ken Hoff charging in from third and one out, Bailey pushed a bunt back to the mound. Jirsa raced in, picked up the ball, and in the same motion threw it underhanded to the plate, but Hoff slid in under catcher Chuck Rogers with the winning run before Rogers could make the tag.

THUS JIRSA went down to a heart-breaking defeat -- his first of the season. Both the runs of the big right-hander were without the benefit of a base hit as he yielded two muzzling singles and five walks. As usual, Jirsa had the hitters guessing with his fast ball and fanned 14 to boost his season's total to 60 in 39 1/3 innings.

It was in the late innings that Jirsa ran into trouble when his walks came back to haunt him. Army spotted Lehigh's first-inning run in the seventh when Pete Manus led off with a pass, stole second, and moved around on an infield out and Bob Ritter's fly to left.

ARMY then almost got the winning run in the eighth when Don Oblinger tried to steal home, but Rogers tagged the runner out on a close play, although the Cadets loudly protested the decision, but to no avail.

In the ninth, though, they got the clincher. John Mischak opened with a walk, stole second, and went to third when Joe Moyer bobbled Manus' groundout. Hoff ran for Mischak, and on a 3-2

Drave Teams Down Rivals

IN THE ELIM schedule of inter-dorm softball games last week Dravo A1 and Dravo C2 each moved up a notch in the league standings as the fourth week of action came to an end.

Dravo C2 scored heavily in the late innings to gain a 9-8 verdict over Dravo B1. Ray Vogel went the distance on the mound to gain the victory for Dravo C2. He also helped his cause by hitting in for B1.

Gunn's 5 Hits Downs Bullets

by John Capps TOM GUNN, whose bat suddenly went on a hitting spree against Army, banged out five more hits Wednesday and Bob Moyer gained his first Varsity win with a strong five-hitter as Lehigh's baseball team got back on winning ways against Gettysburg, 9-5, at Steel Field.

Gunn had a perfect day at bat as he hit safely in eight of his last nine trips to the plate. His three singles, a double, and a triple batted in three runs and led Lehigh's 14-hit attack off George Hare and Bill Hein. Joe Moyer also hit two triples as the Engineers came up with one of their rare displays of power hitting.

MAYER, meanwhile, batted three-hit ball for eight innings, giving up an unearned run in the fourth, before he weakened in the ninth and coupled with two errors, gave up four runs. Otherwise the freshman right-hander had the situation well in hand as he walked five and fanned 10.

Lehigh opened the scoring in the first when Dick Gignon walked, stole second, and scored on Bob Borofski's single up the middle. After an error, Hare's single in the fourth, Lehigh took a permanent lead in their half when Bob Endick and Hank Muhlman walked, moved up on a wild pitch, and both rode home on Bob Walton's single to right.

MOYER's Texas-League triple to right started a three-run rally in the fifth, and Borofski followed with a walk. Gunn then straddled a double to right to score both

Jirsa, Hodder Save 7-4 Win; Butz Three-Hits Mules, 10-0

CLUTCH RELIEF PITCHING by Ron Jirsa and Bob Hodder against Delaware and Lee Butz's masterful three-hit shutout over Muhlenberg boosted Lehigh's winning streak to five last weekend as the Seaside before good Houseparty crowds at Steel Field.

Jirsa and Hodder both slammed the door on potential Delaware gains. Hodder batted starter Frank Yurek out of trouble when he took over with the bases loaded and none out in the fifth and retired the side with only one run scoring.

HODDER then got himself into trouble in the seventh when he walked Dick Goldberg and Chuck Abrams with one away and worked Jim Moneymaker to a 1-2 put in Jirsa, and the big right-hander threw a third strike past Moneymaker and fanned Joe Lark for the third out.

Jirsa went on to get credit for the victory -- his fourth of the season -- as he pitched hitless ball for the last two and one-third innings and struck out five.

BUTZ MADE his initial Varsity start an impressive one as it took him only one hour and 40 minutes and 89 pitches to whitewash the Mules. He scattered three singles and two walks and was hittable only in the sixth when Car Wanzlyk opened with a single and

Nine Scores Early to Rap State, 6-1; Stotz Homers

Looking as though they have finally snapped out of the doldrums, the baseball team hit the 300 mark with a bang as they clustered 10 hits, including a home run and a pair of doubles, to upset Penn State, 6-1, Saturday at Taylor stadium.

Frank Yurek, after a week's rest, effectively scattered seven hits and struck out seven to gain his second victory against three defeats. For the second time in as many games, Harry Stotz blasted a home run over the scoreboard in right center field — 360 feet from home plate. This one, coming in the first inning, was tagged from the mound it left the bat and scored Ron Dreesen, who had doubled, to give the Engineers a 2-1 lead.

State's inability to hit in the clutch — leaving 12 men stranded to Lehigh's four — proved to be a major factor in dropping their second in a row.

While the Nittany Lions were accumulating a long row of goose eggs after their lone run in the first, the Engineers added four more runs in the early innings to give Yurek a working margin.

In the third inning after Chuck Wagner fled out to deep left, Dreesen singled to center. Lee Butz singled to right and Dreesen was held to second, sliding back on a close play when he realized he couldn't reach third.

Then Stotz hit the right field screen with a high fly ball, but because of a good throw-in and the uncertainty of the hit, Dreesen was prevented from scoring.

With bases loaded, Tom Gunn got a fluke double to score two runs when he blooped one just over the first baseman Kennedy's upstretched glove and inside the line.

On a Ricket's choice Stotz scored and Gunn went to third. After Yurek was walked he and Gunn tried a delayed double steal, but failed when both runners were forced back to base. On a second attempt of the same trick, Gunn was tagged out at the plate.

Lehigh's final run came in the fourth when Bruce Thompson scored from third as the Nittany first-sacker dropped the ball on a double play completion.

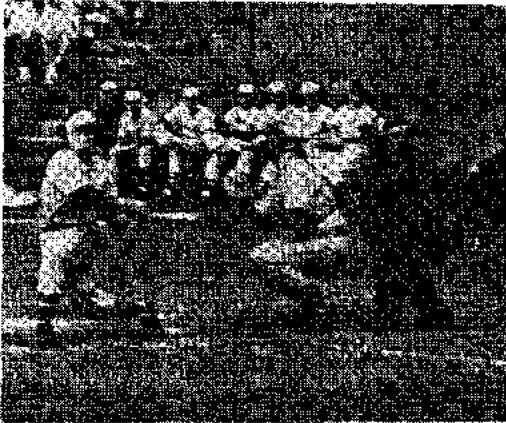

Serious scoring threats by State in the sixth inning with two on and no outs, and in the eighth with a man on third and only one out were squashed by Yurek as he bore down to post two strikeouts in each frame.

Butz Hits, Pitches Nine To 3-2 Wins Over Mules

Coach Tony Packer pulled a new starting pitcher out of the hat Thursday as he used rightfielder Lee Butz to hold Muhlenberg to five hits and drive in the winning run in the ninth inning to give the Engineers a 3-2 victory at Taylor stadium.

Harry Stotz blasted loser Tony Saddler's first pitch of the ninth inning over the right center field fence to tie up the ball game.

An error by second baseman Bob Fritch then enabled Frank Yurek, batting for Bruce Thompson, to reach first. After Ron Dreesen sacrificed and Tom Gunn fled out to deep right field, Butz cracked a single to left to score Yurek from second. The victory stopped a four-game losing streak.

A rhabarb developed in the Lehigh half of the eighth inning. After Gunn singled, Gilmore walked, and After dropping their first match of the season to Princeton, the golf team regained their winning stride by trouncing Muhlenberg, 8-1, at Allentown. This win brings their record to five wins and one defeat.

Dick Sperry playing number one for Lehigh in place of Joe Kryta, had a tough match to Bob Lessel of Berg one-up on the 10th hole but Mario Posillco won by the same score over Wali Haslam of the Mules to even it up.

Silksters Triumph; 2 New Marks Set

With two men setting new Lehigh records, the track team romped over Ursinus Thursday by a 92 1/3 to 23 3/3 score at Collegaville. It was the Engineers' third straight win of the year without a loss.

Sender Don Bell set a new mark in the shot put with a heave of 50 feet 4 1/2 inches. Fred Stark, a junior, also broke a mark by heaving the discus 132 feet 8 1/2 inches.

Clyde Royster was again a double winner as the trackmen swept 12 out of 14 events. Royster won his hundred and 200 specialties. Another double winner for the Engineers was Carlton Clark who captured the mile and two-mile events. Arch Schifflin, running his first meet of the season, won the half-mile event.

The only victories for Ursinus were in the broad jump and the 220 low hurdles.

Yearling Nine Triumphs 11-6

Although Lehigh's freshmen baseball team was held to eight hits by Perkiomen prep, the yearlings capitalized on every mistake the losers made as they took a 11-0 verdict last Saturday at the loser's field.

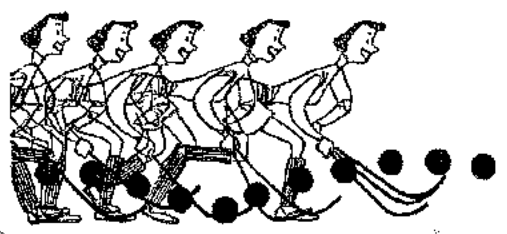

The victory marked the frosh's second straight win. Their record now stands at 2-1.

Bob Harrington started things off for Lehigh by being hit by a pitch. A balk and a single by Johnny Meyer gave the frosh their first counter. In the third inning the Engineers scored twice as Harrington singled and Bob Taylor walked. Two errors by the infield scored the runners.

A three run outburst in the seventh put the game on ice for the Engineers. Three singles and a steal of home by Meyer did the trick.

Perkiomen came to life in the bottom half of the seventh to score four times as Frank Dukette became wild temporarily. A hit batsman, a wild pitch, and a walk were sandwiched in between a single and double for the losers.

Frank Dukette went all the way for the winners to even his record at 1-1. He spaced six hits and struck out 12.

Frosh Best Wyoming, 8-7, With Ron in 12th

Ike Tompleton's pitching and hitting led the Lehigh freshman to an 8-7, 12-inning triumph over Wyoming seminary on Friday at Steel field.

Tompleton relieved Parsell in the seventh. Wyoming reached him for three runs in that frame but he held them scoreless on two hits over the remaining five innings. Ike won his own ball game in the 12th by driving in Galsky with a single.

Harding and Naylor, each with three for six, paced the Lehigh 10-hit attack.

Track Team 2nd In Mid-Atlantics

Although Goose Royster captured two of the three crowns held by LaSalle's sprinting ace Joe Walker and emerged as the only double winner of the competition, the Explorers still amassed 49 points — 11 above the second place Engineers — to take their third consecutive Middle Atlantic track and field title, Saturday, at Philadelphia.

Two new meet records were set by LaSalle in the javelin and the 120-high hurdles. Al Cantello successfully defended his javelin crown by hurling the spear 207 feet 1 inch to better the mark set in 1949 by almost six feet.

Frank Schubert, whose javelin toss of 184 feet 8 inches was good enough for second place, took first in the discus with a flip of 137 feet 7 1/2 inches and was runner-up to teammate Don Bell in the shot-put. Bell's distance was 46 feet 3 1/2 inches.

In the 120-high hurdles, Explorer Mark Harmon breasted the tape in 14.3, shaving one second off a mark established in 1943. Lehigh's Ray Vortasian finished fifth.

Royster defeated Walker first in the 100, busting him by four yards with a time of 5.9, then added the coup de grace by clocking a 28.1 in take top honors in the 220.

Haverford's Baylis Thomas won the pole vault with a 13 foot 2 inch effort. Marty Maurer placed second.

Backing up Schubert's performance in the discus were Fred Stark and Al Glazier who copped the number two and four spots respectively.

The point scores were LaSalle 49, Lehigh 32, St. Joseph's 30, Lafayette 28 and Delaware 13. Scranton 10, Albright 9, Ursinus and PMC 8, Bucknell and Gettysburg 7, Haverford 5, Juniata 5, Dickinson 6.

Butz Wins, 3-1, Over Wagner; Steals Score

Lee Butz scattered five hits and fanned eight as Lehigh downed Wagner, 3-1, Friday at Wagner.

Lehigh jumped into the lead in the second inning when Tommy Gunn opened the frame with a single and moved to second on a sacrifice by Tom Gloede. An error and a successful double steal brought him home.

The Engineers increased their lead to 3-0 in the sixth. After Furness was safe on an error, Stotz sacrificed and Gunn rolled out. Gloede walked and then, on a delayed double steal, Furness scored. A sharp single by Butz brought Gloede home from second.

Wagner picked up one marker in their half of the frame as Lou Marcano reached first on an error, moved around on a walk and passed Hall, and scored on Billy May's single.

Owen Blanks Nine To Halt Win Streak

Ten walks, five errors, and a lucky Lafayette pitcher named Ben Owen brought Lehigh's five-game winning streak to a screeching halt Saturday as the Leopards blanked the baseball squad, 5-0, at Easton.

Even in the hitting department it was strictly a contest between opposing pitchers as each blunted a triple off the other. However, Owen drove in two runs with his show while Frank Yurek was left stranded on third.

While Yurek was having a hard time finding home plate and the Engineer infield was experiencing similar difficulty with the other three sacks, Owen was handcuffing Lehigh on four hits. Both pitchers struck out nine.

Although Lafayette only picked up five hits, the miscues plus two wild pitches and a hit batsman provided them with three unearned runs.

Besides Yurek's triple in the third, only one other time were the Engineers able to push a man past second. In the fourth inning Lehigh had men on first and third, but Tom Gunn was tagged out on an attempted double steal. In 13 attempts this season it was only the fourth time the double steal had not produced a run.

Lehigh's record stands at 12-5, Lafayette's at 11-3.

Nine Tops Mules, 3-0; Butz Stars

by Pete Byrnes

Lee Butz, the Allentown Junior who didn't figure prominently in coach Tony Parker's pitching plans a few weeks ago, became Lehigh's top winner as he stopped Muhlenberg, 3-0, on four hits Saturday on the loser's field.

In registering his fourth victory of the campaign, Butz earned the distinction of having won half of the Engineer's victories while he has been tagged with only one of his team's six losses. Butz is also the only pitcher that has beaten Muhlenberg twice this season.

Lehigh started their scoring in the third inning when Tony Sadtler, the Mules' top hurler, hit Chuck Wagner with a wild pitch, Harry Stotz singled and both base runners scored on Tommy Gunn's long triple.

The final tally came in the seventh frame. Bruce Thompson singled only to be retired when Jim O'Connell bounced into a fielder's choice. Roy Dreessen's second hit of the afternoon, a double, scored O'Connell.

Muhlenberg threatened in the fourth inning after two were out. A single sandwiched in between a pair of walks filled the bases for the home team, but Butz forced Sadtler to scribble a grounder back to the mound to end the threat.

Butz allowed four hits and five walks while he fanned three. This marked the fifth complete game in five starts that Butz has turned in.

Muhlenberg's Sadtler tried for his seventh victory but got his second loss instead. Lehigh has handed him both defeats.

Golfers Best Leopards, 6-3, for 13th Triumph

Annexing their 13th victory of the season, the golf team beat Lafayette, 6-3, Friday afternoon on a rain-soaked Susquehanna Valley country club course.

Joe Kryia, links captain, substituted Jim Ferguson, 5 and 4. The Leopard's Al Wardell beat Ev Schaefer one-up. Lehigh won best ball one-up.

Engineer Mario Poellito defeated John Parr, 4 and 3, while Lehigh's Jersey Wells was defeating George DeGrace, also 4 and 3. Lehigh again won best ball, this time 7 and 1.

In the last two games South Mountain Minister Fred Bobb had John Hacklin two up. Best ball was also tied.

The Engineers made use of a shift in its lineup which proved to be of advantage as they widened the 5-4 margin with which they downed Lafayette in Easton on April 27.

Parents to Swell Crowds At Events This Weekend

Parents will visit the Lehigh campus for the annual fall Parents' weekend tonight, tomorrow and Sunday. Tickets for the football game against Gettysburg are selling rapidly and the season's largest throng is expected to view the game.

Starting off the Parents' weekend will be tonight's Student Concerts-Lecture program of excerpts from the Gilbert and Sullivan productions by Helen Roberts and Richard Walker to be held in Grace hall.

Before the game, the university will provide lunch in Grace hall for the students and their parents. The faculty will be present at the lunch and this will be an opportunity for parents to meet the instructors.

Almost all living groups will have some sort of party for the parents after the football game.

Tomorrow at 9 p.m., the Campus Chest committee will sponsor the annual Chocty Ball, during which a king and queen will be picked from the parents on the floor. Lee Vincent's orchestra will play for the dance to which the parents of student donors will be admitted free of charge.

Really Gone Ghouls . . .

Caricatures in varying degrees of grotesqueness representing the candidates for the dubious honor of being named "The Ugliest Man on Campus" are shown above. A.P.O., the sponsoring organization, will award the winner $5.00 plus a bottle of Scotch.

Rev. Wedel Butz, Mengel, Hayes To Talk at Chapel Sun. Are 1, 2, 3, 'Ugliest'

The Rev. Theodore C. Wedel, Ph.D., S.T.D., will be the guest speaker at the 11 a.m. service this Sunday in Packer chapel.

Dr. Wedel is the Warden of the College of Freuchers, and a Canon of Washington Cathedral, Washington, D.C.

He was born in Halstead, Kan., and studied at Harvard, Yale, and Marburg, Germany. From 1938-1939 Dr. Wedel was engaged as an instructor at Yale, the University of Texas, and Carlton College, Minn.

At the 1952 General Convocation of the Episcopal church, Canon Wedel was elected president of the House of Deputies.

He has written several books including, "The Medieval Attitude Towards Astrology," "The Coming Great Church," and "The Christianity of Main Street."

The Rev. T. C. Wedel

With the additional inspiration of a bottle of Scotch to spur their campaigns, the 33 ghouls aspiring for Lehigh's Ugliest Man title shifted into high gear in an effort to gain last minute ballots.

Contributed by the Brown Key society, the Scotch will supplement the original prizes of $5.00 and a specially designed Ugly Man key.

The polls, situated in the library's main lobby, have been open since Tuesday and will close tomorrow at noon. Ballots in the form of hard cash have been tucking into the boxes at a steady if not sensational rate which is expected to increase as the contest comes down to the wire.

Alpha Phi Omega, sponsors of the competition, will donate all proceeds of the event to the Campus Chest fund drive, currently in full swing.

As of Wednesday, Leo Butz, erstwhile diamond ace and representative of Town council, was ahead of the pack with $13.35, a margin of $4 over his nearest pursuer, Jerry Mengel. In third place was Phi Sigma's dark horse, Dean Byron C. Hayes, only faculty member entered, with $5.52.

Pete Veinott, Arcadia's contestant, Harry Stutz, football captain, and Stan Corbett rounded out the applicants who had accumulated one dollar or more at Wednesday's tabulation.

Following the leaders in respective order were Pat Tomasetti, Eddie Cahu, Charles Copp, Robert Kistler, and Mike Ellinger. Bob Moore and Bill Martin, the apparently handsome tail-enders, have yet to collect a cent in their coffers.

Votes will be tabulated this afternoon and the lucky winner will be announced between the halves of the Lehigh-Gettysburg gridiron clash slated for 2 p.m.

Student Groups To Study Plans For New Bldg.

Preliminary planning for the new University center got underway Wednesday night with the formation of six Student Activities sub-committees.

It will be the function of these committees to operate within a specific area, developing information concerning the provisions which should be made for student organizations in the Center, and making recommendations to the Student Activities committee of Argus.

Examination of the needs and desires of each student organization will be the task of the Sub-committee on Student Organizations with Ralph Hamilton, area's president, as chairman and Dean Lefth as faculty adviser.

The Sub-committee on Student Recreation will analyze the needs and desires of the students with respect to games and amusements such as bowling, ping-pong, and television. It will also study hobby and craft facilities for individuals and organizations. The chairman is William Schiesser, president of BEG, and faculty advisor is residence halls director Phillip Woodroffe.

To develop information with respect to the social facilities needed for dances, parties, movies, and entertainment by living groups and other student organizations, SAC has established the Sub-committee on Student Social Facilities. Its chairman is Clarence Walbert, president of Town council, and faculty advisor is Preston Farr of the Institute of Research.

The chairman and the faculty adviser of Board of Publications' Sub-committee, which will analyze the present and future requirements of the various student publications, have not yet been announced.

The Sub-committee on Special Facilities will take up the subject of facilities to be developed for the general usefulness of Packer hall. They will look into the feasibility of establishing a book store, food facilities such as a snack bar or coffee shop, lounges, post office, information and ticket booth, a barber shop and quiet rooms.

Their recommendations to SAC must take into consideration the fact that such facilities as the dining rooms and book store are relatively fixed as far as location is concerned, and their planning of necessity must be handled by specialists.

Prof. Lawrence Whitcomb of the department of geology is the faculty adviser. The chairman is as yet unannounced.

The above sub-committees are to recommend to the Student Activities committee the facilities which their study suggests should be provided in the proposed University center. Also to be included in their report to SAC are types and amount of space (desired and minimum), special space requirements, and special location.

Acting as the information center for these groups will be the Sub-committee on Campus Relations with Arthur Roth, editor of the Brown and White, as chairman and Prof. J. E. McFadden of the journalism department as adviser.

It will be the duty of this sub-committee to serve as a listening post for campus comments, questions, and discussions; to accumulate all questions and sound out student opinion; and to disseminate information as released by SAC and concerning committee activities and polls, and to refer any information received to the pertinent committees.

One member of this sub-committee will be designated to sit with each of the other sub-committees to act as reporter and liaison officer.

The final reports of the sub-committees to SAC are due Dec. 15.

Cops Tow Car After Violation

Two Lehigh students wound up in the custody of the Bethlehem police Wednesday after they ripped down a no-parking sign because they were late for an exam.

Robert Strange, the slayer, parked his car illegally in front of the First Maravien Church on Packer av. His companion, Gerald Fogelson, tore off one of the signs. Police towed the car away.

Police chief Raymond Reuter said Fogelson would be charged with breach of the peace. Strange had to pay towing charges.

Southern Decor Chosen For Fall Houseparty

Planning lavish decorative collays as a background to the music of Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey, the 1954 Houseparty committee is setting its sights on a ticket sale of 1,000 for the annual fall frolic.

This year's motif will typify the South in general and New Orleans in particular to provide a suitable setting for the renowned Dixieland music of the Dorseys and the Rhythmaires, feature attractions in Grace hall.

Reversing traditional procedure, the committee has placed the Rhythmaires on the hall's lower floor this year in order to accommodate the many listeners who will flock to the Rhythmaires' diversified program of requests and jazz.

The Dorseys will offer their nationally famous style on Grace hall's upper floor where extensive Southern scenery will surround the dancers. Featured vocalists will be glamorous Lynn Roberts and Bill Raymond.

Ticket sale for this fall's HP will begin Monday, Oct. 18 and will continue until 6 p.m. Friday, Oct. 29, the night of the dance.

In another departure from regular procedure, advance tickets will go for $5.00 while at-the-door admissions will cost $3.00.

Guests are obtainable from all section and fraternity representatives. Dancing will commence at 10 p.m. Friday and will extend through 2 a.m. Saturday.

SCL's Season Opens at 8

Starting off the 18th consecutive season of the Student Concerts-Lecture series, Helen Roberts and Richard Walker will present a group of scenes and songs from Gilbert and Sullivan productions at 8 tonight in Grace hall.

The program will include selections from most of the famous shows written by the celebrated duo.

A number from the opera "Pirates" will begin the evening of music. This will be followed by a duet serenade, "The Buttercup."

Other well-known productions represented in the first part of the program are "The Sorcerer," "HMS Pinafore," "The Pirates of Penzance," and others. Following intermission the duo will enact scenes from "The Mikado."

Polio Victim Improved

Richard Eckhardt, 37, a victim of polio, has improved considerably and has been removed from the St. Luke's hospital respirator. At present, he is confined to a rocking bed which facilitates his normal breathing.

SCL Duo Delights Audience With Gilbert, Sullivan Songs

by George Becker

Although beset by a small audience, poor acoustics and a lack of limelight as the only figures on the large stage, Helen Roberts and Richard Walker somehow managed to delight most of the audience in their belated appearance in Grace hall Saturday night.

Portraying farcical Gilbert and Sullivan songs and scenes from a number of their operas, the duo did wonders with what could have been the most boring performance imaginable to anyone not familiar with Gilbert and Sullivan. Some of the 18 selections were truly works of theatrical art.

Miss Roberts and Mr. Walker, both British performers, exhibited remarkable ability in portraying various moods. Their rendition of "Love Is a Plausible Song" from "Patience" captivated the audience and drew much applause.

The performers, with their accompanist, emerged from the depths of backstage Grace hall through a small, mouse-like opening at the rear of the stage, and began their performance with a selection from "Patience."

The farce duo from "The Buttercup" from "Ox and Box" was presented next, followed by "When I Good Friends were Called to the Bar" from "Trial by Jury." The latter ran for 234 performances when it was written in 1875.

"The Yarn of the Nancy Bell," described in the program as "rejected from the English magazine Punch for being too cannibalistic," was presented following the delightful H.M.S. Pinafore, which included "The Hours Creep on Apace" and "Never Mind the Why and Wherefore." The "Pinafore" is a satire on the British Navy.

The "Pirates of Penance" and "Patience" concluded part one, which was greeted by a minimum of applause.

"Isolanthe" inaugurated the second part of the show following intermission.

Dr. Martin D. Whitaker, president, told the committee that "Packer hall, the original university building, lends itself according to the architect to remodeling into an excellent university center."

The proposed center will provide both cafeteria and lunch service and make available meeting rooms, lounges, and student activities offices.

Dean Wray H. Congdon, dean of students, outlined to the group the various personnel services available to the students at the university.

"Every parent," he said, "has a stake in the reputation and the adequacy of the educational program in all its aspects that we are undertaking to carry out at Lehigh."

EACH dot represents a city or town where at least one of the 116 General Motors plants is located.

These 116 plants—representing GM's 35 manufacturing divisions—provide a wide range of places in which you, as a young graduate engineer, might be working.

Each of these widely scattered plants offers the security and prestige of the GM name.

On top of that, each division has available to it the vast research facilities for which GM is famous.

In addition, we offer the scope of an organization which produces not only motors and their accessories, but also jet engines, refrigerators, electronic equipment, Diesel engines—just to name a few.

And most important is GM's deep-seated respect for engineering and engineers—the recognition of creative thinking that means "more and better things for more people."

You'll find plenty of wide-open spaces at GM if you can measure up to the chance and the challenge we offer. Why not start mapping it out in your mind?

Meanwhile, send for the booklet, "The College Graduate and General Motors," which goes into further detail concerning opportunities at GM.

Varsity '9' Loses First 3 Games

Swarthmore Cops 2nd, 5-4

Eccentric pitching enabled Swarthmore to hand the varsity baseball team its second loss in two outings with a 5-4 decision on the victor's field during the vacation.

Three bases on balls and one wild pitch set up all five Swarthmore batters. A few other walks, wild pitches, and hit batters didn't affect the scoring at all.

Southpaw Dick Reinhold was tagged for eight hits until Frank Rowan relieved him in the seventh inning with Swarthmore holding a 3-2 lead. Rowan retired one man, and Frank Yurek retired all three batters in the eighth inning.

Lehigh rallied for two runs in the ninth inning, falling one short of tying up the game. Pete Crawford walked and Charlie Wagner doubled. A passed ball let one runner come home before Sean Furias singled home the second run of the inning with only one out. Lee Butz forced Furias at second, but Harry Slotz singled to put the tying run on second. Paul James then got Tom Gloede to ground out to start to end the game.

Lehigh scored first when Furias walked and Slotz tripled in the top of the third inning. Swarthmore tied it up in their half and went ahead

In the fifth, Lehigh moved back into the game for the last time when they knitted the score in the sixth. Lehigh played errorless ball.

Drops 3rd Straight Game To Wagner College, 5-2

By John King

Two-time losers, Lehigh's baseball team returned to Bethlehem last Thursday to open their home stand in Taylor stadium and try for their first win of the season.

Catch Tony Packer sent Frank Yurek against the Sea Hawks of Wagner college but he couldn't hold off the visitors' attack as the Engineers lost their third straight contest, 5-2.

Yurek, starting his fourth season of varsity ball, was strong throughout the game but he had several erratic moments. He served up nine strikeouts as well as nine walks. Besides that, Yurek hit one man and surrendered three wild pitches. His task wasn't any easier as catcher Bob Gilmore jet through three passed balls.

Fred Viebrock went the distance for the Sea Hawks although he had a shaky first inning when Lehigh loaded the bases on singles by Tom Draesen and Chuck Wagner and one of Harry Slotz's three walks. Viebrock got out of the jam when he forced Tom Gloede to sky to center for the third out.

The biggest blow of the game came on the first pitch of Lehigh's half of the fourth inning when Hub Naylor laid into Viebrock's initial offering and set it down in Packer ave. for a four-bagger.

For the first time in a couple of years, Slotz was moved out of his usual No. 4 position in the batting order for the Engineers. Naylor took over for the day drawing a walk and a street shout — the first of the season. Slotz had an easy day at the plate with his three free passes.

Lon Marcano was the slugging gun for the Wagner outfit as he slugged a triple off rightfielder Jimmy O'Connell's glove in the seventh and in the eighth, he belted a homer. He also walked, was hit by a pitched ball, and rolled to first.

Lose Opener to Princeton, 5-0

Catch Tony Packer unveiled his 1955 edition of the Lehigh baseball team in Princeton, N.J., last Wednesday as the Engineers faced the Princeton Tigers on University field.

Lehigh lost 5-0.

Princeton's Leigh Ford tossed a four-hitter for the Tigers as they took their third straight game and Ford won his first varsity start.

The Tiger right-hander let only two men reach second base as he went the route striking out seven and walking one.

Lee Butz went all the way for Lehigh and, in taking the opening luns, whiffed three while walking one. His downfall came when he let out 11 hits.

Easton also paced the hitting column with two singles and his two-bagger while Phippin had two safeties.

Engineers Pound 11 Hits; Mules Bow to Butz, 5-3

Lee Butz broke the Lehigh baseball team's four game losing streak with an eleven hit, 5-3 decision over Muhlenberg before a houseparty crowd.

For Butz, it was his fourth triumph over the Mules as a Lehigh moundman. He has yet to lose to Muhlenberg. Outside, the Engineers made the best of ten hits and seven walks to take out their second win of the season against eight defeats.

Muhlenberg drew blood first. With two outs in the first inning, Harry Stotz and Chuck Wagner cried, and a single sent both runners home.

Lehigh retaliated. Ron Dreesen and captain Harry Stotz singled. An ensuing hit by Bob Naylor sent both Engineers around the bases.

Lehigh took the lead in the third inning, and continuing to all previous action, the scoring began with two outs and the bases empty. Naylor and Butz singled. Then Naylor attempted a steal of third and the Allentown catcher threw the ball to the wrong place, left field.

Lehigh's winning run was tallied in the fifth when Naylor was perched on third and Russ Weber was on first. Weber attempted to get caught in a "hot box," so that Naylor might sneak in another Lehigh run. Again the Muhlenberg receiver overthrew his target and Naylor crossed the plate without trouble.

Muhlenberg staged an eighth inning rally which might have normally clinched the ball game. However, oddly helped set back the Mules. Frank Sproverto opened the inning with a double. Butz picked him off, and then Tom Weber touched Butz for another two-bagger. Still holding a 4-2 lead, Lee struck out pinch-

Yurek Holds Fords to 1 Hit, Wins 9 to 2

Brilliant no-hit pitching for seven and two-thirds innings by Frank Yurek was the key to Lehigh's 9-2 victory over Haverford in Taylor stadium last Tuesday.

Yurek, a four-year veteran of Lehigh's mound staff, lost both his no-hitter and a shutout with two men out in the eighth when Don Koldil lashed a long single to left center. The visitors' Dick Freedman and Tom Regan, recipients of two of Yurek's six passes, scored easily on the hit. After the final out in the eighth, Yurek was given a rest and Doug Maswell held the home hitters in the last frame.

In leading the Engineers to their third triumph in 11 starts and their second win in a row, Yurek struck out 16 batters. In two innings the fifth and the eventual eighth, the Lehigh fast-baller struck out the side.

Lehigh wasted no time in taking Yurek to a one-run lead in the initial frame as Harry Stotz singled home Chuck Wagner from second base after two years out. The Engineers scored twice in the fifth on the strength of consecutive singles by Bob Gilmore and Sam Furness and a single by Ron Dreesen.

Yurek opened the sixth inning with a double to center but it appeared that he would be stranded as Jim O'Connell and Tom Glende proved to be easy outs. Gilmore's home through which he tried unsuccessfully to stretch into a double.

The Brown and White took advantage of a generous number of Haverford mistakes in the seventh to score twice on one hit. Furness burst astely to start the inning and then stole second. After Dreesen grounded out, Chuck Wagner reached first on the third baseman's error and Furness held second. In an exhibition of "speed," Furness stole third and Wagner's stole second. Harry Stotz slapped the ball to shortstop but both runners scored when catcher Regan allowed Howard Walton's throw get past him.

Stotz tried to reach second base on the play but the pitcher surprised everyone by carelessly knocking down the loose baseball and relaying it to the shortstop who had wandered over to the K system's rack. On the play at second, Stotz injured his ankle and had to leave the game.

After Yurek's no-hitter was spoiled in the first half of the eighth, the Engineers came back to score their last three runs on one hit. Yurek started the attack with a walk off of Bob Rodewald. The visitors' second hurrier, Lee Butz, singled, Frank Heiser walked, and Gilmore scored Yurek with a long fly to left. After Rodewald hit Furness to load the bases again, he was replaced by Jim Henderson. This move on Haverford's part was not particularly effective since Henderson walked to first and gave up another on a long sacrifice fly by Wagner.

Although Yurek pitched one of the best games in his Lehigh career, he has struck out more batters in a nine-inning game in 1955. He registered 16 strikeouts against Haverford.

SPORTS ANGLES

by Bud Sienkiewicz, Sports Editor

Frank Yurek's masterful pitching job the other day against Haverford adds another link to his long chain of excellent performances.

What is probably his prize contest was the one he beat Swardthmore in back in 1952, 9-6. That day he struck out 20 men. The Cornell squads seem to be his favorite target for he canned the redskins again in 1953 and 1954. The '52 game saw Frank toss a two-hitter against them hitting only three men reach base as he won, 2-0. Swardthmore's catcher, Dana Swan collected both of the hits after he had become one of Frank's nine strikeout victims.

In 1953 Yurek had two other good games that year, even though he lost one of them. Although he gave up only three hits, Yurek dropped one to Rutgers. The other winner came on a six-hitter against Ursinus when Frank fanned eight men and won 4-3.

Swardthmore got it on the chin again last year when Coach Tony Packor sent Frank in to hurl the contest. He had a no-hitter going for eight innings when first baseman Bob Ellis spotted it with a one base poke in the ninth. Lehigh won it easily though, 11-2.

Yurek had three more good games that year. In the Temple contest, he sent 12 men back to the bench on strikes and won it, 4-3 in the tenth inning. Panning seven against Penn State, Yurek won, 5-1, although he allowed seven hits. Lafayette beat him that year, 5-0, but it was on walks. Frank gave up five hits and struck out nine. ROT—he fanned out 10 free trips.

Getting off in a late start this year, Yurek dropped his first three games. Now, with his performance against Haverford, he seems to be back on the ball. If he can keep it up, the Engineers may salvage something out of an already disastrous season. It would be nice if somebody went out to see the diamond men try to do the trick.

College baseball pitchers seem to be having quite a time all of a sudden. Penn State's sophomore southpaw Ed Drapcho has turned in two excellent mound assignments so far this season. Hurling for the Military Lions on April 28 against Bucknell, Drapcho picked up a no-hitter and allowed one run. He struck out 12 and walked two in winning his third game of the year. The lone Bison tally came on a walk, a passed ball and a two-base error.

In his next appearance, which was on Monday, Drapcho gave up two hits to the Dickinson ball club and blanked them, 5-0. He fanned 13 for his fourth win. Both of the losers hits were scratch hits to the infield.

How Drapcho did it, we don't know, but he lost one contest earlier in the year!

Keeping with the sport of baseball, we found a humorous item the other day.

Virginia Tech's pitcher Dave Kuhn was busy sending Williams and Mary batters back to the bench while merrily chewing away on a wad of bubble gum. Kuhn apparently blew some beautiful bubbles because the WMU batters got tired of watching and complained to Umpire Joe Paverall. A short council of war was held and the ump decided in favor of Williams and Mary.

The man in blue convinced Kuhn that it wasn't nice to blow bubbles in the face of the opposition batters and that he should stop doing so. He did. It didn't make much difference—Tech won anyway, 1-4.

hitter Jim Reinheckel. Frank Feters followed up with a single, so sharp that Weber had to hold up at third base. Muhlenberg finally did score, as Tony Sadtler singled in the final Mule run.

Ron Dreesen capped the scoring parade by walking in the last half of the eighth inning. Singles by Stotz and Wagner brought Dreesen across with the final marker.

Racket Squad Drops to F&M; 2nd 5-4 Loss

Lehigh's varsity tennis team lost their second match in a row by the narrow margin of 5-4 to Franklin and Marshall at Lancaster last Tuesday. The previous Saturday they had lost by an identical score.

In the Penn State match, even though they lost four out of six singles matches, the Engineers nearly won the match winning the first two doubles matches and carrying the third to three sets finally losing 6-3, 6-1, 6-2.

The loss to F and M was also a disappointing one as Fred Braunstein lost 6-7, 7-6, 6-2 after leading in the second set 4-0 and having several match points with the score 5-4. The absence of regulars Charles Roth and Gene Siegel hurt the team's chances.

The two losses evened the racket squad's record at three and three. The team will travel to Gettysburg tomorrow.

Stickmen Drop 4th Straight To Drexel, 11-4

Drexel's lacrosse team was too much for the Lehigh stickmen as the Philadelphia won by a 11-3 score on Steel Field Wednesday. The loss was Lehigh's fourth in as many starts.

Lehigh struck right with Drexel throughout the first period which came to a close with the score 2-2. Drexel scored three in the next period, however, while the Brown and White team was scoring but one. The Philadelphia also got three goals in each of the last two quarters while Lehigh was being shot out.

Drexel's scoring attack was led by Schette who tossed in 4 of their 11 goals. The Lehigh scoring was by three different players. Fred Gould, assisted by Herb Brattoli, opened the Lehigh scoring. After taking a pass from Dutch Grau, Charles Strach scored Lehigh's second goal. The third was by midfielder Joe Burtus.

Bill Hickey, who suffered a sprain in last week's game, played a little against Drexel. It is hoped he will be able to play full time when the team travels to Hoboken to face Stevens Institute tomorrow.

Bullets Blast Nine, 14-4

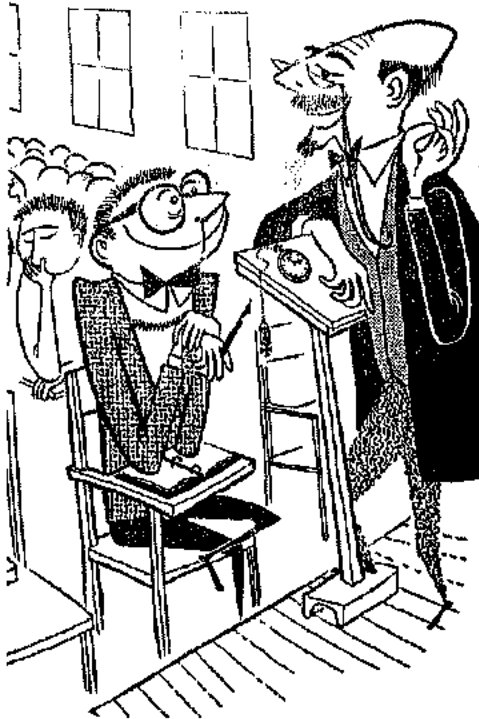

Gettysburg College's bas-ballers aided by a barrage of four home runs, rode over Lehigh Thursday with a 14-4 score. In handling the Engineers their ninth loss in 12 starts, the Bullets opened up the round-tripper assault in the first and second innings against Dick Reinhold, scoring seven runs.

The Lehigh offense was accounted for by Chuck Wagner. In the first he poked a two run homer and tripled in the third, countering another tally, scoring himself as the throw-in got away.

Joe Bierly took the triumph for Gettysburg, fanning six and walking none. Reinhold absorbed his fourth setback without a win, being relieved by Doug Maxwell and Frank Rowan.

Leading 7-4 in the fourth, Fred Alleva put the game on ice for Gettysburg, tagging a grand slam. Other Bullet homers were hit by Oalde Schallak, Bob Swank and Bob Gilchrist.

Solomon Hurls No-Hit Shutout

Len Solomon, of Tau Delta Phi, the defending university champion, pitched a no hit, no run game over Theta Chi to give Tau Delta the league "C" championship. Solomon didn't walk a man and only two errors prevented him from getting a perfect game.

Sigma Alpha Mu, Alpha Sigma Phi, and Kappa Alpha are undefeated in the "D" league. Many games that have been played have not been reported to the P.E. office so the official standings at this moment don't include many games.

Pi Lambda Phi and Lambda Chi Alpha look like the winners in the "D" league with Alpha Tau Omega given an outside chance.

Sigma Chi has slaughtered all opposition with a brutal hitting attack and should win the "A" league title.

Lafayette Takes Engineers, 6-3

by Bob Evans

Engineer Lee Butz pitched masterful ball for six innings against the Leopards of Lafayette, shutting them out with no hits, only to have a disastrous seventh frame, allowing six runs to lose 6-3.

In the Saturday contest at Maxton, Lehigh was going into the last of the seventh with a 2-0 lead, the runs scoring in the sixth when, with Sam Furness on first, Ron Dreesen and Chuck Wagner singled, Furness tagging, and Dreesen scoring when Harry Stutz got on via an error.

Lafayette then broke loose. Bob Macchirete hammered a triple to left-center, and crossed the plate on pinch-hitter Dick Fitzgerald's slug. Two more hits filled the bases with Emilio Peters sending to bat, Peters drove a hard ground ball to Wagner at third, who threw wildly trying for the force at home, two runs scoring.

A hit by Bill Hogarty drove in two more runners, and, in attempting a steal of third, came in himself on an errant toss by catcher Bob Gilmore. Butz then retired the next three, and allowed a stray bingle in the eighth for a total of six for the game.

Lehigh added a run in the ninth as Bob Taylor singled and took third on an error. Frank Kurek was hit with a pitch and Butz rapped into a double play, Naylor scoring.

Leopard right-hander Roger Gordon went the first seven frames, was lifted for a pinch-hitter but picked up the victory. Relief pitcher Maurice Amshad up as the Engineers dropped their 10th in 13 outings.
