

Kevin Higgins

Kevin Higgins coached at Lehigh University for seven consecutive seasons (1994-2000).

Throughout his time at Lehigh, Higgins held a record of 56-25-1, and 30-9 in conference play.

Higgins was awarded Patriot League Coach of the Year in 1995, 1998, and 2000.

Additionally, his teams won the Patriot League Championship in 1995, 1998, 1999 (Co-Champions), and 2000.

Making 3 NCAA D1-AA Playoff appearances, Higgins holds an overall postseason record of 2-3.

His teams reached as far as the quarterfinals in 1998 and 2000.

After Lehigh, Higgins went on to coach for the Citadel, Detroit Lions, and Wake Forest, where he currently serves as Assistant Head Coach.

2 Academic All Americans - Jack Mack (1994) , Nick Martucci (1998)

1 NFL Draft - Rich Owens (1995)

8 AP All Americans

4 Stats All Americans

Longest Winning Streak of 12 Games in a Single Season (1998,2000) at Lehigh